Dear Edward D. Barnes,

Equality Virginia is in the midst of a great transition – one that will allow our organization to communicate with our members more effectively through our new website! As such, we are currently looking through our files and updating information that our members can access, so as to provide them with the latest, most accurate information possible.

In the past, you and/or your law firm have asked to be listed on the legal resources page of our website as a firm serving GLBT clients. If you are interested in continuing to be listed on our new website, in order to provide our members and the public with the most accurate information available, we ask that you fill out and return the enclosed questionnaire.

Firms/individual attorneys that do not return the questionnaire will all information requested will not be listed on the new website. In addition, we may link the actual questionnaire to your listing or upload the information you provide in another accessible format.

Please return the questionnaire by mail or fax at your earliest convenience. We must receive your questionnaire before we can continue to list you among our legal resources on our new website.

Please feel free to contact Mardi Krantz at mkrantz@equalityvirginia.org or 804.643.4816 if you have any questions.

Thank you for your time and effort,
